Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure # least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry — Prof. Charles Eliot Norton.

The Land O' the Leal

By BARONESS NAIRN.

I'm wearin' awa', John,
Like snaw-wreaths in thaw, John,
I'm wearin' awa'
To the land o' the leal,
There's neither cauld nor care, John,
Thee's neither cauld nor care, John,
The day is aye fair
In the land o' the leal.

Our bonnie bairn's there, John,
She was baith gude and fair, John;
And oh! we grudged her sair
To the land of the lea!
But sorrow's sel' wears past, John,
And joy's a-comin' fast, John,
The joy that's aye to last
In the land o' the lea!

Sae dear that joy was bought, John.
Sae free the battle fought. John.
That sinfu' man e'er brought.
To the land o' the leal.
Oh! dry your glistening e'e, John.
My soul langs to be free, John.
And angels becken me
To the land o' the leal.

Oh! hand we leaf and true, John.
Your day it's wearin' through, John,
And I'll welcome you.
To the land of the leaf. Now fare-re-week, my ain John. This ward's cares are vain, John, We'll meet, and we'll be fain in the land o' the leaf.
